Fascinating first hand account

Reviewed in the United Kingdom on December 27, 2020

Verified Purchase

A fascinating, tragic and poignant first hand account of a vicious political plot which would stop at nothing to sabotage the US President.

In this well researched book, Svetlana Lokhova delves into the sordid details of the Russian collusion hoax and how she became a victim, targeted as she was by the brazen lies of intelligence operatives, working in league with the deceitful media hacks who led an international disinformation campaign which destroyed innocent lives and misled the public. Abandoned by the perfidious cowardice of her former colleagues at the University of Cambridge, she hopes to set the record straight and expose every player involved. A must read!
